

One slightly cupped flower on one erect, 22.5-cm solitary inflorescence on a 47.5-cm x 49.6-cm plant; four linear leaves per growth, up to 59.0 cm long x 0.6 cm wide, three sheaths per growth, margins serrated, grown in a 1-gallon black plastic pot in pumice, rock and bark; sepals oblanceolate-oblong, acuminate, green, suffused red, denser distally, slightly cupped distally, lateral sepals veined red; petals oblong, porrect, green suffused red, veined dark red, broader proximally, margins slightly cupped distally; lip fleshy, white, spotted lavender proximally, faintly blushed peach, striated faint magenta, margin blushed magenta, midlobe oval, distal half rolled under touching reverse side, faintly blushed peach, blotched magenta parallel to midvein, two fleshy keels cream, spotted light magenta; column cream, blushed green distally, anther cap newly missing; substance moderately firm; texture crystalline; floral sheath 1.4 cm wide x 3.7cm long, cream veined maroon, from Yunnan Providence, China, pending SITF Verification.