

Orchis italica 'Huntington's Pixie' AM/AOS 81
pts. 20235865

Twenty-nine flowers and eight buds on one erect 34.5-cm inflorescence, borne on single growth, terrestrial plant; the 8.0-cm tall by 12.0-cm wide growth, grown in a round 10.0-cm green plastic pot, nine leaves, oblanceolate, acute, up to 8.0 cm long by 1.5 cm wide, light green, sparse brown circles, margins undulate, arranged in a rosette; dorsal sepal lanceolate, somewhat porrect, hooded, light lavender, veined lavender; ventral sepals lanceolate-falcate, horizontal, light lavender, veined lavender; petals porrect, oblong, overlapping in front of column, light lavender, veined lavender; lip trilobed, light lavender, side lobes curved around column, midlobe divided into five lobes that resemble a body with a tail; column white, sides broadly striped dark fuchsia, anther cap white; substance medium; texture finely crystalline.